CODE OF PRACTICE FOR DEALING WITH UNREASONABLE AND PERSISTENT COMPLAINANTS

From time to time the Parish Council receives complaints from members of the public. Some complaints are received by telephone or in writing and some by a visit to the Parish Clerk's office. In order to deal with complaints efficiently and effectively the Parish Council has a Complaints Policy.

The Parish Council's administration is carried out by a part time Parish Clerk. In the event that a complainant begins to make frequent contact with the Parish Clerk and hinders the normal day to day running of the Parish Council, the Parish Clerk will implement a policy for dealing with frequent or vexatious complainants , since such complaints can be time consuming and could lead to unnecessary additional cost to the council tax payer.

The Parish Council's policy for dealing with unreasonable and persistent complainants will become operative if the complainant is deemed to be unreasonably persistent either by written or oral communication or excessive visits to the Parish Clerk's office.

PROCEDURE

A vexatious complainant will be notified that the Council's Policy for dealing with unreasonable and persistent complaints is to be enforced, together with the reason why .

The complainant will then be asked to adopt one or all of the following procedures

- request contact with the Parish Council in a particular form (for example, letters only);
- Request contact to take place with a councillor present;
- Restrict telephone calls to specified days and times; and/or be asked to enter into an agreement about future contact with the Parish Council

The Council will decide how long it will spend on any one complaint and whether it feels the complaint has been sufficiently dealt with. In all cases where a complainant is deemed to be unreasonable and persistent, the Council will write to the complainant to justify its course of action and explain for how long it will be operative.

The complainant may challenge the Council's decision, although proof that the complaint has not been sufficiently dealt with will be required. However, if deemed to be a fair challenge the Council will conduct a review of the complaint and will reconsider whether the complaint should still be treated as unreasonable and/or vexatious.
